VESTAL Quality ROSES

GOLDEN DAWN

VESTAL'S Arkansas-grown Rose plants are the finest that Nature, aided by scientific skill, can possibly produce. If you have never planted Vestal Roses, look through this booklet and give us a trial order.

For the proverbial life-span of three score years and ten, Jos. W. Vestal & Son has been busy growing plants for American gardens—seventy years of creating and testing new things, and, by everlasting watchfulness and rigid selection, improving the old favorites. Some of the finest Roses grown today are Vestal introductions, offered only after we have grown them and found them good.

This has been a labor of love, for we love plants and have enjoyed every minute devoted to this work; also, like most honest businesses, the House of Vestal has prospered, has grown from an idea and the will to do, to the largest retail nursery in the State.

Look over our list of Roses; you will find only good varieties, the best of the old ones and only the novelties which we have tried and found worthy.

The quality of our plants is the highest; our prices are low—as low as we can make them and still have a small profit for ourselves. We do not ask a large profit on any of our plants. With the increasing volume of orders from all over the United States, we are able to ship the finest plants at the lowest prices consistent with any kind of quality.

We know that our stock is grown right and handled right after it is dug, enabling us to deliver superior plants which are bringing many favorable reports from satisfied customers, not only in the South but from all parts of the United States. Vestal Roses will thrive anywhere that Roses can be grown.

We believe that the reason Roses have not been more generally grown in the South is that gardeners were not getting good plants suited to their conditions. If you are having trouble with Roses, tell us about it; we shall be glad to advise you.

We shall be happy to have you visit our greenhouses and nurseries any time you are passing through Little Rock. If your visit can be made during Rose blooming-time, you can spend a very enjoyable afternoon or evening looking over our Rose-fields and trial grounds.

» » » THE VESTAL GUARANTEE « « «

We guarantee to the full amount of the purchase price, the purity and quality of all Vestal Seeds, Bulbs, Roots, and Plants ordered from this book; and we also guarantee to the full amount of the purchase price, the safe delivery of everything you order.

We do not guarantee continued growth. At our prices it is impossible for us to guarantee growth or to be responsible for stock after delivery to our customers in good condition. So many factors over which we have no control, govern the life and growth of plants, after they leave our custody, that we do not feel that we should be held responsible for their growth.

AMI QUINARD

MISS ROWENA THOM

Here are some instructions which may help you to grow extra-fine Roses:

Any good garden soil will grow good Roses. In planting a dormant Rose, dig a hole wide enough so that the roots can be spread out without bending and deep enough so the crown will be just barely covered when the bed is finally leveled off.

Set the plant and pack clean earth tightly around the roots, tamping solidly; when the hole is nearly full of earth, pour in a bucket of water. As soon as this drains away, finish filling up the hole and hill up to the top of the canes with clean earth, peat moss, or sand—anything to protect the canes from sun and wind until the plant can form new roots, which will not be for two or three weeks. If you live where the ground freezes and are planting in the fall, leave the hills for winter protection, removing as soon as frosts are over in the spring. Keep Roses well watered the first few weeks. Where winter protection is necessary, the most satisfactory method is a simple hilling up with clean earth.

Ami Quinard. Tall, semi-shrubby plants producing semi-double, very dark crimson-maroon flowers with rich old-Rose fragrance.

Angele. A white Rose of exquisite form and delicious fragrance, a long-lasting flower that you will want more of. Bushy, free-flowering plants.

Angele Pernet. Large, loose flowers of brownish orange, with unforgettable fragrance. Low plants with beautiful shiny foliage. One of the most irresistible of the fancy colors.

Autumn. Burnt-orange buds showing old-gold on the inner side of the petals, and turning bright yellow, streaked red, when fully open; very double; fragrant.

Betty Uprichard. Strong-growing bedding Rose with large, semi-double flowers of vivid salmon-pink stained with coppery rose on the outer surface of the petals.

Briarcliff. Large, pointed buds with double, high-centered blooms of bright rose-pink. Fragrant and long lasting.

Caledonia. Pure white flowers of large size and splendid form are produced singly on long, strong stems, making it desirable for cutting and an ideal exhibition Rose. The plants are good and it is becoming very popular.

Catalonia. There is no other Rose like Catalonia. The plants are low and spreading and the stems are rather short, but the fully double flowers are velvety vermilion, a truly startling color, and it is fragrant, too. A real novelty.

Charles K. Douglas. A red Rose for every garden because it has a strong, healthy, bushy plant and blooms all the time. The large, double flowers are scarlet, flushed crimson, and make a grand garden display.

Charles P. Kilham. An attractive Oriental red-orange flower, flushed with scarlet, produced on a long stem, making it a splendid cut-flower. The plants are spreading instead of upright.

Comtesse Vandal. Plant Patent No. 38. Long-pointed buds shaded coppery bronze, which open to silvery pink blooms shaded with coral and apricot. Very popular. $1.00 each; 12 for $10.00.

Condesa de Sastago. One of the most popular of the high-colored Roses. Large, cupped flowers, fiery copper on the inside and rich gold on the reverse—a spectacular combination. Richly fragrant. Strong, upright plants which produce freely.

Conqueror. An almost unknown Rose of saffron-yellow, the reverse flushed with orange. It ages an attractive shade of pale yellow. Although it has but 15 petals, it is a free-blooming variety deserving a trial in all parts of the country.

Dainty Bess. This 5-petaled flower is one of the loveliest Roses in the garden. The blooms are between 3 and 4 inches in diameter, with ruffled edges to the petals; the color is an exquisite shade of soft rose-pink.

Dame Edith Helen. Perfectly formed pink flowers with symmetrically arranged petals, somewhat like a huge, bright pink Francis Scott Key.

Dardanelle. Lovely buds open to perfectly formed flowers of brilliant cherry-red which eventually become bright rose-pink, when they resemble shapely, semi-double peonies.

David O. Dodd. Magnificent deep glowing crimson-scarlet flower with regularly placed, overlapping petals forming a splendid, symmetrical center. A richly perfumed Rose borne on strong stems for cutting. Plants have handsome glossy foliage and are vigorous and productive.

Director Rubio. One of the largest Roses in existence. Long-pointed buds and big, shapely flowers of brilliant cochineal-pink. The plants are quite low-growing.

Double White Killarney. Exquisitely formed buds with lovely recurving petals, opening to huge, semi-double, crystal-white flowers unsurpassed in substance and texture.

Duchess of Wellington. One of the older Roses which is yet one of the best. Long, shapely buds open to large, loose, deliciously fragrant flowers of golden orange and saffron. The plants are rather awkward but bloom freely.

Duquesa de Penaranda. Large, double flowers of cinnamon-peach color; delightfully fragrant. Strong, upright growth. A new Rose which is making good everywhere.

Edith Nellie Perkins. The buds are a lovely shade of salmon stained with coppery bronze, and open to exquisitely formed, flesh-pink flowers tinted with gold in the heart and flushed with ruddy copper on the outside of the petals. Plants erect, free flowering, and vigorous. One of the best and most popular.

Editor McFarland. One of the finest deep pink garden Roses. The perfectly formed, fragrant blooms of clear, brilliant pink are borne on long cutting stems. Vigorous plant and healthy green foliage.

Etoile de Feu. Low-growing plants bearing large, double flowers which open flat. They are flaming orange, tinged with pink—a real flame color.

Etoile de Hollande. The huge ruffled flowers have enormous heavy petals opening to deep, sweetly scented blooms of most attractive scarlet-crimson overlaid with velvety black. Plants are vigorous, with bold foliage, and produce the superb flowers on long stems suitable for cutting. Satisfactory in every way.

Federico Casas. Strong, upright plants, with very thorny canes, bear large, loose flowers, coppery pink inside with an orange reverse. They are spectacular, and, strange to say, freely produced. Make a grand cut-flower.

Gold Star. Starry flowers of rich golden yellow open from deep orange buds. The petals are stained with orange and splashed with scarlet on the reverse.

Golden Dawn. Flowers are fully double, deep yellow in bud, occasionally tinted with bronze, opening to fine, richly fragrant, pale lemon-yellow blooms of great size and lasting qualities. Plants are dwarf and spreading, with dark, glossy green foliage which seems impervious to black-spot.

Golden Rapture. A new German Rose known as Geheimrat Duisberg in Europe. The plants are upright, with large, glossy foliage, and the flowers are large, perfect in form, pure golden yellow, with fragrance of old-time gardens. You will want a bed of Golden Rapture. 75c ea.

Grace Noll Crowell. This brilliant pink Rose, heavily veined with crimson and illumined with primrose-yellow at the base of the petals, a real poem of grace and beauty, is just the Rose to bear the name of the famous poetess.

Grenoble. The large, globular, brilliant red blooms (scarlet in some soils) are fully double and splendid cut-flowers as they are produced on long stems. Vigorous, branching growth with healthy foliage.

Hadley. An old favorite with a fragrance to remember. The flowers have good form and are a rich shade of crimson-scarlet, the petals finished with blackish velvet.

Harvard. A Vestal introduction which is fast growing in popularity. It is a beautifully formed flower of pure crimson—one of the few without other shades. Fragrant as all red Roses should be. Vigorous, upright plants which produce generous quantities of bloom.

Heinrich Wendland. Double flowers of deep nasturtium-red with a deep yellow reverse. The color lasts well, making it a fine cut-flower, and is becoming popular at the shows.

Hinrich Gaede. The gayest Rose in the garden and one of the first to bloom. Its sturdy plants bear quantities of double orange-yellow flowers flushed with nasturtium-red. This exciting color holds better than most of the "fancy" Roses. Try a bed of it. 75c each.

Innocence. Great white flowers with a mass of wine-red stamens—a pleasing contrast. It is usually classified as a single but really has a dozen petals. To many rosarians it is the most beautiful of all Roses. Strong, branching plants.

Irish Charm. Double, high-centered flowers of golden apricot, changing to blush-pink. Richly perfumed. Upright plants which bloom freely.

J. C. Thornton. Long-pointed buds and medium-sized, fragrant blooms of glowing crimson-scarlet are produced singly on long stems. A nice cutting Rose. Good growth.

Joanna Hill. Clear light yellow flowers deepening to golden orange in center. Vigorous and free flowering. Long stems, ideal for cutting.

J. Otto Thilow. Beautiful, long-pointed buds and splendid open flowers of glowing rose-pink. A fine garden Rose and an excellent cut-flower. Strong growth with healthy foliage.

Joyful. Very long-pointed buds, streaked and splashed with red, on a creamy pink background. As the outer petals unfold, the inner face turns soft flesh-pink, while the outer is flushed with cardinal-red with deep orange at the base of each petal. Strong, upright, vigorous grower. Light green, moderately heavy foliage.

Joyous Cavalier. A large, double, brilliant scarlet flower that does not turn blue with age. An upright, bushy plant and a good bloomer.

Julien Potin. Long-pointed buds and large, double, fragrant flowers of pure primrose-yellow on long, strong stems make this a popular Rose.

Kaiserin Auguste Viktoria. Pure ivory-white. Produces quantities of beautiful buds and full flowers. Long considered the best white Rose for the South because it blooms so freely and continuously.

Kardinal Piffl. A dependable Rose, extra hardy and extra profuse with its fully double flowers of orange-pink. Delightful fragrance. Low-growing plants which one doesn't have to worry about.

Konigin Luise. Fully double, globular flowers of milk-white. Splendid healthy plants. A fine white Rose.

Lady Alice Stanley. One of the oldest Hybrid Teas now in commerce, and still one of the best. Large, solid flowers of silvery pink are always in evidence, and they are fragrant, too. Average growth with good foliage.

Lady Ashtown. This lovely old pink Rose belongs in everybody's garden. The color is fresh and clean, and the form as near perfect as a Rose can be.

Lady Barnby. Fragrant flowers of fine form and large size. The color is rich glowing pink, just about perfect for cutting. Try a few this fall.

Leonard Barron. Large, flat flower with myriads of petals and the fragrance of red raspberries. It is not a strong grower but blooms well. One of the new Rosa Nutkana hybrids.

Li Bures. A chameleon of a Rose, changing its color so fast that it is hard to catch up with it. The memorable colors are rose-red and yellow mixed. It is fragrant. Vigorous, upright growth. 75c each.

Lord Charlemont. Splendid new red Rose of exceptional richness and beauty, with brilliant scarlet tones and blackish shadings. Full and sweetly scented.

Los Angeles. Introduced twenty years ago, this is still one of the most popular garden Roses. The blooms are brilliant salmon-pink, gold at the base, and extremely fragrant.

Lucyle. Very large, opulent buds of glowing pink, opening to big, full blooms of clear, sparkling rose-pink which does not fade. Handsome, massive flowers of great character.

Luxembourg. A large, high-centered Rose of coppery yellow with a deeper-colored center and yellow stains at base of the petals. It is slightly fragrant. Strong plants of spreading habit. An old Rose still in great demand.

Lydia. Large, very double flowers of bright orange-rose come singly on long stems. Vigorous, bushy plants with glossy foliage.

Margaret Belle Houston. Grand velvety crimson Rose, named for the daughter of General Sam Houston, whose name is forever linked with the history of Texas.

Margaret McGredy. A fool-proof Rose with a big bushy plant which blooms all the time. The color is orange-scarlet and the flowers are large and double.

Max Krause. A new yellow which is becoming popular, especially for exhibition. Extra-large, golden yellow flowers with mild fragrance. Give it time to develop, as its first-year bloom is rather shy. Good plants with leathery foliage. 75c each.

McGredy's Scarlet. Strong-growing plant with nicely formed, light red flowers all season long. One of the finest of the red Roses.

Mevrouw G. A. van Rossem. Brownish orange, about the "richest" shade so far in the spectacular fancy colors, and its fragrance is unforgettable. For cutting, and is also the glory of the garden.

Miss Rowena Thom. A very strong-growing Rose with all the vigor of the well-known Radiance, making huge Oriental pink flowers strongly suffused with old-gold at the base of the petals. Deliciously fragrant and free flowering. Under good conditions the plants will stand shoulder high and bloom unceasingly throughout the season. Particularly fine for cutting and for garden decoration where tall plants are wanted.

Mme. Edouard Herriot. A Rose of a remarkably beautiful color—coral-red shaded yellow and rosy scarlet. Not many new varieties surpass this old favorite.

Mme. Jules Bouche. One of the most dependable of the white Roses. Exquisite buds and high-centered flowers, pure white outside but tinted with pink at the center. A good plant which is a generous bloomer all season.

Mrs. A. R. Barraclough. A standard exhibition Rose which consistently carries off first prize by sheer perfection of form. The bloom is very large, of a bright carmine-pink shade without any variation except a slight touch of yellow at the base. Slightly fragrant. Vigorous plants produce their prize blooms on long stems.

Mrs. Charles Bell. Very beautiful soft pale salmon-pink form of the famous Radiance, which it equals in all respects.

Mrs. E. P. Thom. This is generally considered the most useful clear unfading yellow garden Rose. The buds are well formed; blooms shapely and double.

Mrs. Henry Bowles. One of the loveliest of pink Roses and one of the best. Large, double flowers of dark glowing pink. Excellent plants.

Mrs. Henry Morse. A standard variety which produces quantities of perfectly formed buds for cutting—a two-toned pink aristocrat you will never tire of.

Mrs. John Bell. Large, double flower of cupped form which lasts well. The fragrant blooms are light carmine in color and are borne on long stems on vigorous plants with glossy foliage.

Mrs. Pierre S. du Pont. A dwarf, compact plant with upright stems bearing an abundance of deep golden yellow buds and fully double flowers which do not fade. It has a rich spicy fragrance much like an old pot-pourri jar. One of the freest golden yellow varieties.

Mrs. Sam McGredy. Beautiful Rose on a beautiful plant. Long-pointed buds open to nicely formed flowers of coppery orange with mild perfume. The branching plants have lovely bronzy foliage. Every garden should have a bed of it.

Border of Mrs. R. M. Finch Roses

National Flower Guild. A great big, loose flower of deep red on a tall, bushy plant whieh blooms all the time. Try a few among the shrubs.

Nuntius Pacelli. Large, full, very fragrant white flowers, with eream eenters, like Kaiserin Auguste Viktoria but more vigorous. A profuse bloomer.

Olympiad. A gay Rose of blood-red shaded with copper and yellow. Double and fragrant. Medium growth.

President Herbert Hoover. Renowned for its vigor, this bush throws up long, strong stems topped with beautiful tapering coppery golden yellow buds whieh open to enormous deep rose-pink flowers flushed with aprieot and salmon, and washed with gold on the baeks of the petals. A very speetaeular bloom and one of the largest varieties known. This variety is partieularly well adapted to growing in the South and Southwest.

President Jac. Smits. A fine, semi-double flower of brilliant dark red, a different shade; slightly fragrant. Branehing plants whieh are very hardy.

Radiance. Easiest of all Roses to grow, with brilliant pink flowers shaded darker on the outer surfaee of the petals. Always in flower.

Rapture. This lovely sport of Mme. Butterfly has all the good eharaeteristies of its parent but is a stronger grower with deeper pink flowers.

Red Radiance. Very strong, healthy plants with abundant bright, light rosy erimson flowers almost exaetly like those of Radianee in form.

Rose Marie. A fine pink Rose of splendid form, rieh pink eoloring, and pleasing fragranee. You will like it.

Roslyn. One of the new yellow Roses, easy to grow and easy to look at. It is really yellow and the plants work hard.

Sœur Therese. Beautiful buds of ehrome-yellow marked with earmine, just about as niee as ean be for cutting. The open flowers are rather loose and soon ehange from daffodil-yellow to pale yellow. It is fragrant. The big branehing plants produee their flowers in elusters of 5 or 6 but on stems long enough for table deeoration.

Souv. de Mme. C. Chambard. A Gold Medal Rose with large, semi-double, fragrant blooms, outer petals rieh rose-red, inner ones deep rose-pink with golden glow at eenter. The progeny of Mrs. John Laing. The plants are strong and upright like its parent. 75e eaeh.

Souv. de Jean Soupert. One of the best bloomers among yellow Roses. Loose, ereamy yellow flowers, one after another all summer, have given this Rose a plaee near the top. It has delightful fragranee. Branehing plants with healthy foliage.

Sunburst. A very popular yellow Rose, varying from deep rose to white, oeeasionally tinted with orange and rose.

Sunny South. Vigorous, branehing plants with shapely flowers of pink and gold. The plants are too big to plant with other Hybrid Teas, but by themselves, as a hedge or mixed in the shrubbery border, they are indispensable. The flowers are beautiful.

Syracuse. Long, pointed buds of deep erimson open to 4-ineh flowers of searlet-erimson, whieh hold their eolor until the petals fall. A fine exhibition flower, as the blooms are extremely double and eome singly on long stems. It has slight fragranee. The plants are tall and bushy with dark green, leathery foliage.

Talisman. Strong, ereet plants with brilliant ruffled flowers of rose, gold, and searlet; very fragrant.

Texas Centennial. Plant Patent No. 162. A sport of President Herbert Hoover with all of Hoover's good qualities. Vigorous plant with healthy foliage and quantities of bloom on extra-long stems. Flowers are large, with about 25 petals, and quite fragrant. Vermilion-red with golden flush, and ages deep rieh pink.

The General. Low-growing plants with large, old-fashioned deep red flowers whieh do not lose their eolor. They are fragrant. If you like it, you will want a bed of them.

Vestal's Red. Large, fragrant flowers of elear red throughout. In form it is similar to the shapely Better Times and eomes on niee long stems. Exeellent plants. $1.00 eaeh.

Ville de Paris. Pure yellow flowers of shapely form are produeed on long stems suitable for eutting. Upright plants with willowy eanes. One of the best yellows.

William E. Nickerson. Double flowers of rieh orange-eerise whieh ehanges to salmon-pink. This is a lovely Rose with a host of admirers.

Wilhelm Kordes. Shapely flowers of golden pink open from eoppery salmon buds. A beautiful flower with a none-too-strong plant.

Climbing Roses

Apeles Mestres. Very large, extremely double, sunflower-yellow flowers on long stems make this very vigorous climber extremely popular. It blooms abundantly in April and May. 75c each.

Belle of Portugal. Large, semi-double flowers of light flesh-pink on very long bloom stems. A vigorous climber with glossy foliage. 75c.

Black Boy. By far the darkest climber we offer. The flowers are dark reddish black in spring, flushed intense red and shaded black in summer. A good vigorous climber. 75c each.

Blaze. Plant Patent No. 10. The famous everblooming Paul's Scarlet Climber. A blaze of brilliant red flowers in early summer, and an intermittent bloomer throughout the rest of the season. $1.00 each.

Cl. Columbia. Fine climbing form of the delightful pink bedding Rose of the same name. Marvelous for cutting. 60c each.

Cl. Duchess of Atholl. Fragrant flowers of vivid orange, flushed old-rose, adorn this climbing sport of Duchess of Atholl. 75c each.

Cl. Etoile de Hollande. Fine, large crimson flowers with delightful fragrance are produced by this vigorous plant more or less freely throughout the entire season. 75c each.

Cl. Kaiserin Auguste Viktoria. Vigorous, free-blooming climber with big, perfectly formed, fully double flowers of snowy white, exquisitely tinted with lemon-yellow in the center. Good autumn blooms. 60c each.

Cl. Radiance. A vigorous climbing sport of the world-popular Radiance, with fragrant pink flowers in great masses. 60c each.

Cl. Red Radiance. A strong climbing sport of Red Radiance. It blooms freely. 60c each.

Cl. Talisman. Enormously popular climbing form of the brilliant golden orange and salmon-pink Talisman. The immense ruffled flowers are borne in superb masses in early summer and more or less abundantly the rest of the season. 60c each.

Countess of Stradbroke. One of the loveliest of dark red Climbing Hybrid Teas, with large, double, very fragrant flowers. Vigorous grower and continuous bloomer. 75c each.

Kitty Kininmonth. A very vigorous climber with big, semi-double, glowing deep pink blooms having many golden stamens in June. Attractive dark green, wrinkled foliage. 75c.

Paul's Scarlet Climber. Probably the showiest climbing Rose. The big ruffled flowers of stirring bright red are borne in magnificent clusters in early summer. Hardy. 60c each.

Polyantha Roses

50c each; 12 for $5.00, postpaid

Baby Doll (Tip Top). Perfect little buds and blooms of bright golden yellow, tipped with rose. An exquisite miniature.

Chatillon Rose. Noted for the huge size of its flower-clusters which are magnificent bouquets in themselves. The flowers are brilliant pink, semi-double, and keep their freshness for a long time.

Else Poulsen. It is one of the new tall-growing Polyanthas, 3 feet or more in height, with medium-sized, semi-double flowers of a lovely shade of bright rose-pink; slightly fragrant. Very hardy and a continuous bloomer.

George Elger. A dainty Polyantha with perfectly formed little Roses of pale creamy yellow, opening from bright yellow buds.

Gloria Mundi. The most startling novelty in the Rose world. The clustered flowers are vivid, glowing orange, a brilliant shade not otherwise known in the Rose family. Makes a sensation everywhere.

Gruss an Aachen. Very double flowers of Hybrid Tea size and quality on low, bushy plants always in bloom. The color is flesh-pink and salmon-yellow, maturing almost white.

Mlle. Cecile Brunner (The Sweetheart Rose). Perfectly formed little Roses of light pink with a yellow base, in clusters. A favorite for cutting.

Mrs. R. M. Finch. Probably the most important Polyantha, both in the garden and under glass. The 2-inch flowers of bright rose-pink, maturing lighter, are produced in masses on bushy plants.

Salmon Spray. A tall-growing, free-blooming Polyantha with lovely salmon-pink flowers having a carmine reverse. Blooms on long stems.

IN THESE pages we are listing only the best of the long list of Roses in commerce in Ameriea today, varieties which have done well for us here in Little Rock, and which we feel sure will sueceed for our customers everywhere.

Our list contains several Roses not obtainable elsewhere, varieties of our own introduction which are making good and pleasing our customers in the North as well as in the South. Vestal's Roses are carefully grown but not pampered, and are strong plants full of vitality that will give you good service. We should like to suggest that you will get a great deal more pleasure and satisfaetion from your Roses if you will plant a whole bed, or at least several of one variety, rather than only one or two of a kind. They make a better appearanee in the garden, and for cutting there is the satisfaetion of having enough flowers of one eolor.

If you are not a customer of Vestal's, give us a trial order. We feel sure you will be pleased.

Try planting these highly colored varieties where they will have shade part of the day—the colors will last much longer

The New Hardee Peach

The flowering time of the tree in northern Ohio has ranged, for the last five years, between April 18 for the first bloom and May 7 for the last bloom, being in full blossom usually the last week in April.

It is a yellow freestone Peach, having a thick skin, and in size, color, texture, juiciness of flesh, and general appearance resembling Elberta. The fruit is deep yellow with a striking red cheek and the flesh is yellow. Flavor distinct, with a very decided Peach taste.

The fruit's shipping and keeping qualities are good. It is a good all-purpose Peach, having fine qualifications for dessert, cooking, and canning. Good for home use and also a fine market Peach. A delicious high-quality yellow freestone Peach with outstanding "bud" and "wood" hardiness.

In northern Ohio it ripens about September 10, with and a little later than the Elberta.

In habit and vigor of growing in the orchard, the tree is intermediate between Elberta and J. H. Hale.

No. 1 Grade, 9 to 16-in. Caliper (1 to 10 rate) . . $1.25 EACH
